

LETTER OF INDEMNITY TO BE SIGNED BY PERSONS GRANTED A PASSAGE WHETHER SIGNED ON THE SHIP'S ARTICLES OR OTHERWISE

TO THE OWNERS OF THE M.V. in consideration of your allowing me to make a voyage from
..... to in the above vessel, I, hereby undertake to make no claim of any nature whatsoever against you, your servants or agents, whether or not such claim be occasioned by the negligence, act or default of you or any of you, nor to claim against any person whom you or any of you may be liable to indemnify by contract or otherwise, and I also agree to relinquish any right which I may acquire to participate in salvage monies.

I also agree to indemnify you and each of you against any claim whatever by any person arising out of any act, omission or default by me on the voyage.

I also undertake to insure and indemnify you against any charges or expenses which you may pay or become liable to pay for hospital, medical, burial or repatriation or maintenance on my account, and further to insure and indemnify you against any claim whatsoever by any person arising out of any act, omission or default by me during the voyage.

It is also agreed that minors should at all times be accompanied by their guardian as soon as they arrive at Owners' Premises. Owners' Premises is defined as all areas to include Owners' car park, terminal building, walkways and gangways.

It is further expressly agreed hereby that throughout this Guarantee the word "Owners" shall include the servants and agents of the Owners of the said vessel, whether afloat or ashore, and any person or person whom the said Owners may be liable to indemnify against such claims by contract or otherwise.

This indemnity is governed and construed in accordance with Italian law, and any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Release shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Court in Italy.
